Silicon Valley Jiaren Association(SVJRA)

Silicon Valley Jiaren Association (SVJRA) was established on the Oct 22th of 2015. As the most influential Chinese female focused non profit organization in the Silicon Valley, SVJRA had grown exponentially within the first 3 months. Now, SVJRA has over 20 thousands subscribers and over 40 groups on Wechat with more than 300 members in each group (Wechat is the biggest social platform among Chinese populations). SVJRA is also in partnerships with 18 organizations, 17 new media channels and platforms, schools, and other miscellaneous groups, which enable SVJRA to broadcast information and influence over 500,000 Chinese population in the United States.

The mission of SVJRA is to encourage women by telling real stories of female figures who pursue their dreams with earnest efforts in making dreams into a reality. SVJRA promotes connections amongst women and helps each individual to grow to be an authentic self. With our very first article reaching 15,000 views within 30 days of publication, SVJRA has been grabbing great attentions. Our articles have been reposted by more than 10 media channels in China. In efforts to better serve our audience and convey our value, SVJRA provides weekly features interviews, online guest speaker sessions, and monthly offline events.
